

Te Manu Kōrero o Ngāti Mutunga

Tēnā koutou katoa,

Welcome to the first edition of 'Te Manu Kōrero o Ngāti Mutunga', your weekly update of Ngāti Mutunga news and events.

Ngāti Mutunga o Wharekauri – Treaty Settlement Hui: Friday 10th February 2017

Ngāti Mutunga o Wharekauri Iwi Trust Negotiators and Settlement Governance Group invite you to a hui to update uri on the progress on negotiations with the Crown. Click on the following link to view the hui schedule.

Who: Ngāti Mutunga uri.

When: Starts 5.30pm Fri 10th Feb 2017.

Where: Urenui Pā.

How much: No cost.

Registration: No registration required. Just turn up before start.

Te Pumaomao Wānanga: Saturday 18th - Sunday 19th February 2017

Discover Māori world views, laws, philosophies and histories in this tikanga (Māori customs and values) based immersive wānanga. It is 'hands on' and participants will come away with an enhanced understanding of how Māori view the world. All are welcome.

Who: Anyone (Māori and non-Māori) interested in learning about Māori perspectives.

When: Starts 8.30am Sat 18th and 8.30am Sun 19th Feb 2017.

Where: Urenui Pā.

How much: Koha.

Registration: Click on the following link to register and for more details or call 06 7523247.

Te Puna Waiora Cultural Health Index Wānanga: Tuesday 21st - Wednesday 22nd February 2017

What is the health of your freshwater? Learn to develop and use an index for your iwi, based on Māori cultural values and health indicators. This two day wānanga is led by Jonathan Jarman (Medical Officer of Health at TDHB) and is facilitated by Tui Shortland.

Who: Environmental minded uri from iwi or hāpu in Taranaki.

When: Starts 10am Tues 21st and 9.30am Wed 22nd Feb 2017.

Where: Urenui Pā.

How much: Koha.

Registration: Click on the following link to register and for more details or call 06 7523247.

Do you have any news that you would like to share or ideas for our pānui? Let us know. Please private message us, email office@ngatimutunga.iwi.nz or call us on (06) 7523247.